

BIBLE TOP 10

Read it. Live it. Share it.

Top 10 Most Difficult Working Relationships In The Bible

Horrible bosses and backstabbing colleagues aren't anything new. The Bible is a rich treasure trove of stories about some of the most ruthless, heartless, conniving, demanding rat weasel coworkers and bosses ever to grace the earth. So if your boss isn't looking over your shoulder, treat yourself to this list of the Top Ten Most Difficult Working Relationships In The Bible.

10. Judas And The Other Disciples (John 12:1-6)
9. Haman And Mordecai (Esther 3:1-6, 6:1-14)
8. Sarai And Hagar (Genesis 16:1-16)
7. Joseph And Potiphar's Wife (Genesis 39:1-23)
6. David And Saul (1 Samuel 18:1-16)

Special Recognition

If there is anything worse than working with a jerk, it's working with a difficult family member. For that reason alone, we identified three working relationships between siblings that deserve special recognition for the depths of their dysfunction.

- Solomon And Adonijah (1 Kings 1:1-53)
 - Joseph And His brothers (Genesis 37:1-36)
 - Moses, Aaron And Miriam (Numbers 12:1-15)
5. Jacob And Laban (Genesis 29:14-30)
 4. King Nebuchadnezzar And Shadrach, Meshach And Abednego (Daniel 3:1-30)
 3. King Darius, The Satraps And Daniel (Daniel 6:1-28)
 2. The King Of Egypt, His Cupbearer And Baker (Genesis 40:1-23)
 1. King Nebuchadnezzar And His Magicians, Enchanters, Sorcerers And Astrologers (Daniel 2:1-49)